BOSTON SOCIETY WOMAN GIVES UP ALL HER OTHER WORK TO AID UNFORTUNATE GIRLS

MRS. THOMAS TYLER.

Mrs. Thomas H. Tyler, a Boston society woman, has undertaken the redemption of her unfortunate sisters on the city streets. Mrs. Tyler has withdrawn entirely from social life, and is giving her time to rescue work. She goes into the worst parts of the city and brings back with her girls who want to turn from the paths of vice. She brings them to her handsome home in the most exclusive part of the city and there entertains them and treats them as a friend and equal until they have gotten a new start in life.

ridge presided. A paper by Mrs. D. B. Wells of Chicago on "Woman's Influence in the Christianization of America", was read by Mrs. W. O. Williams. Mrs. D. B. J. FAVORITE RECIPES OF SOUTH BEND WOMEN

MRS. NINA DOOLITTLE.

"My Mother's Ginger Cookies."

The following simple and economical receipt for ginger cookies has been tested by many friends and neighbors and is always satisfactory.

One cup lard and butter.
One cup sugar.
Two cups best New Orleans molasses.

One cup of sour milk.
Two scant tablespoons soda.
One tablespoon ginger.

One scant tablespoon salt.
One cup seeded raisins.
One teaspoon cinnamon.

Stir flour, sugar and butter together; stir one scant tablespoon of soda in the sour milk and add; stir one scant tablespoon of soda in the molasses and add; sift flour and other dry ingredients together with raisins and add; use enough flour to make rather stiff batter.

DR. THOMSON'S EYE TALKS

(TALK NO. 157.)

One Year.

Just one year ago I commenced this series of "Eye Talks". I have tried to tell you in plain, everyday language, why it does not pay you to put off wearing glasses when you need them and why glasses that are not skillfully fitted are worse than none at all. I have tried to make it clear that I am not here just to sell all the glasses that I can but that I am here to give you real service. I can say frankly that I am just as much pleased as my patient when I can tell him that he does not need glasses. I have advised a number of people, during the past twelve months, not to wear them. I shall continue the series of talks for another year. No doubt many of the thoughts that I have already brought out will be touched upon again. But I shall do my best to make them interesting and worth your reading. If your eyes trouble you at any time I shall be glad to consult with you. I do not charge for consultation and advice.

"Not Open on Wednesday Afternoons."

Just a Simple White Dress.

It is not the idea of the WHITE DRESS PARADE to wear a silken or expensive gown. Just the simple white dress you already have; that is all that is necessary to make you a participant in the fete at SPRINGBROOK PARK on WEDNESDAY, AUG. 6th. Do not wear a hat as it may detract from the white dress rather than add to its effectiveness.

What young lady's eyes would not sparkle with joy and delight if she found herself the possessor of a diamond ring like her grown up sister wears. The young miss appearing in the White Dress Parade whose costume and grace of manner the judges think most worthy of the title will be chosen Queen and receive just such a diamond as her heart desires.

Three Maids of honor will also receive diamond rings, real cut stone, not so large as that given to the Queen, but large enough to thrill their little hearts.

If you have not sent in your name, just come to the park on Wednesday dressed in white and enter the parade. Advertisement.

The Queen's Chariot to be Snow White.

The Queen's chariot will be snow white and will be driven by two canopied ponies on WEDNESDAY, AUG. 6th, the second annual Girls' White Dress Parade at SPRINGBROOK PARK. Who will be the Queen? No city in Indiana has more charming and dainty misses than South Bend and Mishawaka. Some one will be chosen and will receive the beautiful Diamond Ring. She will wear it all her life, and often recall the days of her girlhood, when her own natural grace of manner made her the choice of capable and discriminating judges.

If you wish to enter the parade just drop a postal to Mr. Dailey, Manager Springbrook Park, with your name and address.—Advertisement.
